a) Authentic Voters; Cost-free-voter and b) Paper-ballot-voter

A authentic voter is one who votes for their own name or other names, as consecutively ranked names and names as consecutively ranked names as back-ups, using an cost-free eballot or a paper ballot (added costs) and consecutive numerals beginning with the numeral "1" must be used.

Were any numerals or characters other than consecutive numerals beginning with the numeral "1" is used, that vote is considered a vote to be declared null, void and deemed democratically not legit.

a) Authentic Cost-free-voter = Voting via Email, Telephone or Facebook Messaging (The marked eballots/votes are uploaded to the web site for the verification purposes of the voter and all observers.)

b) Authentic Paper-ballot-voter = Voting on paper ballots only via postal service (The marked paper/votes are uploaded to the web site for the verification purposes of the voter and all observers.)

c) Non-Voter = Holder of Common Stock Does not Wish to Vote (No marked eballots/votes are uploaded to the web site for the verification purposes of the voter and all observers although non-voter names may be listed on the site.)

Non-voters may hold common stock shares, but once a non-voter self-declares and is identified by them and the APS Co.'s department of Investor Relations, non-voters will not be contacted again after the one first time which is at the time of the purchase of the share when the purchase agreement is signed and the buyer had indicated whether they planned to be a non-voter (no voting) or voter (voter equates to a #1 vote for their own name as "Investor BoD").

All Top Ranked Consecutively Ranked Voters, top to bottom, holders of "Common Stock Shareholder Voters"

The top holders of the common stocks shares who are self-categorized as "authentic voters" in the description above will be contacted in consecutive order, to compile the votes needed from them for electing the ten "Investor BoDs" of the All Party System Co., USA Bureau.

Each top holder of common stocks, may elect their own name to the board which is done by a nod through paper ballot, eballot, telephone, email, postal or other means.

A #1 Ranking May Be Used

* * *

Any vote for the common stock shareholder for their own name is considered a #1 vote for their own name. Additional consecutively ranked names may also be used but no such additional rankings have ever set precedents to these matters as on 8/16/2015.

45. Proxy voting not permitted as of 8/16/2015.

~~Proxy~~ voting as defined by the All Party System Co. is the method of when another person is designated as the voter in the stead of the person who actually owns the voting common stock shares or vote by a person other than the name that had been elected.

46. Elected BoDs must participate in the July 5th annual teleconference call and/or sign the meeting's minutes within the 60th day which follows the meeting or risk being removed as BoD. This way, a majority of the BoDs is guaranteed to approve the annual BoD meeting's minutes.

When a majority of the board members is not attained for approving the company's bylaws, minutes, elections and/or agenda by signing the annual July 5th board meeting's minutes, even after board members not in compliance have been eliminated from the board, then the lowest ranked Investor BoDs and then Worker BoDs will be eliminated one at a time until a majority for approving the minutes is achieved.

* * *

47. First the lowest ranked Investor BoD, then the lowest ranked Worker BoD, each are alternated and no/zero consecutively ranked BoDs may be automatically elected in their stead. The board members are continually eliminated in a balanced manner until the majority required for signing the meeting's minutes is achieved.

48. Worker and Investor Board of Directors' (BoDs) Priorities and Resignations:

One of the unique traits of the All Party System Co. is the voting system which tries to have a 50/50 balance between workers and investors in the company whose balance is decided by the executives' votes. The Worker and Investor BoDs combine to elect the five Regular Executives.

Worker BoDs

Worker BoD nominations begin on January 1st, elections start on March 1st and end on July 5th of each year, with the annual board meeting on July 5th being the date where all elections are finalized. Should Directors need to be eliminated in order to approve the July 5th meeting's minutes, then once the meeting's minutes are approved, the election of back-up names can be resumed.

The new names are automatically elected one week (seven days) after the previously eliminated name is removed, provided that these bylaws had been approved by a simple majority of board members.

All wish list elected volunteers, all board members, employees and holders of common stocks who are correctly registered may vote for the Worker BoDs.

Investor BoDs

Any holder of common shares/stocks may elect their own name to the ten seats on the board known as the "Investor BoDs" at any time of the year and the top ten names who own the top ten numbers of voting shares known as common stocks/shares are the first to be elected provided they vote for their own name.

Each consecutively common stock holder may vote for their own name until all ten "Investor BoD" seats are filled.

Only the top share holders need to be contacted by the vote counter, starting from top to bottom of list of shareholders, but all shareholders are welcomed to vote for all Worker and Investor BoD nominees and this voting takes place for free online because of savings on postage and materials.

The All Party System Co., USA Bureau is set up so that the top ten share holders are ranked with the prioritization based on total shares owned.

But each "Investor BoD" may only have one vote on the board, on condition that they agree to elect their own name there and that they provide the biographical info. that we request.

Then the eleventh top common stock/share holder isn't on the board once all ten "Investor BoD" seats are elected, because all ten seats are taken.

The eleventh name will "spill over" into the subsidiary countries such as the International Bureau, the USA Sub-station Bureaus and other countries' bureaus.

RESIGNATIONS: Once the holder of common stock resigns from the BoD, they will not ever be contacted unless they specifically ask to be reinstated or when their name is elected in another office or capacity other than as a Investor BoD. Once they resign, they must contact the central office to have their name re-instated to the BoD as a holder of common stock, when they wish to resume their duties and have their name be returned to the BoDs. They only receive the one seat on the Investor BoDs based on the rankings of the numbers of total share units they own/hold and only when they accept and agree to have their name elected, and they must meet all the requirements within 60 days after annual board meetings; providing their correct name and mailing address is correct, accept the election of their name and they provided the biographical information.

49. ELIMINATION OF BODS IN NONCOMPLIANCE

50. The period of procedure for removing BoDs who do not meet the requirements and who will be eliminated from the elected "Workers' BoDs" will continue until a majority of the BoDs who remain have met the required guidelines. The elimination of names continues between the dates of March 1st, July 5th, September 5th and December 31st of each year, which are known as the primary attrition dates.

When names are eliminated, no new names for Worker or Investor BoDs are elected from the next consecutively ranked names on the marked ballot totals until the annual meeting's minutes are approved by a simple majority. Once the minutes are approved following the July 5th annual meeting, the Worker BoDs who had already been ranked as the original nominees may be re-elected as Worker BoDs and new Investor BoDs who provide the required vote and share purchase may be elected.
